

College-Bound Digital Resources

<https://launchpad.classlink.com/ocps>

College and exploration through My Family Connection on Naviance. This is your go-to resource for your postsecondary transition! Check out Roadtrip Nation under the Careers tab—it's incredible!!!

<https://www.bls.gov/ooh/>

Occupational Outlook Handbook-- find information about jobs in the field you are interested in, what kind of income you can expect, projected job growth, and what kind of postsecondary education you need.

www.satpractice.org

Study for the SAT using the Khan Academy. Get the scores you need for Bright Futures. (1290 FAS or 1170 FMS) Earn a passing score for the FSA ELA—430.

<http://campustours.com/>

A fantastic website that allows students to take virtual tours of college campuses all over the country

<https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org>

Awesome resource that gives all kinds of information about college planning, career exploration, what to ask when on a campus tour, etc.

<https://collegescorecard.gov>

The site allows students to sort and filter their search results to easily compare schools and decide which college makes the most sense when considering the typical costs, average student loan amount, students' ability to repay their loans, and their future earnings

<https://opportunity.collegeboard.org>

College Board is offering scholarships from $500-$40,000. Check out the link above and DO THE THINGS! Colonial High School is currently the #1 school in the COUNTRY for the number of students selected for College Board Opportunity Scholarships!

<https://myscholly.com/>; <http://scholarshipinformer.com/find-scholarships/>; raise.me

Students and parents always want to know about scholarships. In addition to accessing the local scholarships, whose applications are found in Student Services, these websites are great resources for nationwide scholarships.

www.southern scholarship.org

Want to go to UF, FSU, FAMU, TCC, SFC, or FGCU? If you have a 3.0 or higher, good character, and demonstrate a financial need, you might be eligible to live in a Southern Scholarship Foundation house—rent free!!!

www.fafsa.ed.gov

The FAFSA window opens on October 1st. Senior Night is 9/24 and our October FAFSA Help Nights are 10/7 and 10/23! See you there! Create your FSA ID at <https://fsaid.ed.gov>!

Follow us on Instagram @ColonialGuidance
#GrenadiersGoPlaces